

TOLUCA TROUBLE IS COMPROMISED.

BLOOD SHED IS AVERTED BY COOLER HEADS.

The Invading Strikers Were Addressed By Acting Governor Gill and Advised to Go Home—They Have Probably Won Their Point—The Trouble at Other Points.

TOLUCA, Ill., April 28.—The striking miners marched into Toluca yesterday and rode out of it in the afternoon. They came footsore and weary, but they had a chance to rest on the return trip. Trains were made up and they were taken home by rail.

There was no violence and no serious disturbance, but it looks as if the strikers had gained their point. The negroes who were at work in the mines have left. They departed before the strikers arrived and will not come back until they have left, if they do then. There is talk of their joining the union and taking part in the strike, and it is not unlikely that many of them will do it. If they do Manager Devlin says he will fill their places with other men.

The victory, such as it was, was a peaceful one and is so much the more acceptable to the citizens, who spent a night thinking of the horrible things that they felt sure would happen. Nearly four thousand five hundred miners camped at Big Sandy, only a short distance away, and the citizens were sure they would sack the town as soon as they reached it.

Every precaution was taken, and when the men reached Toluca, at 6 o'clock, every saloon was closed. The men were tired but enthusiastic. They had a brass band and a drum corps with them, and to the music of these they marched to the common near Superintendent Duggan's house. No attempt was made to stop them, as Sheriff Lanz had announced that he would not send his little force of deputies against them. He was prepared to do what he could to protect the property of the company if it became necessary, but he did not propose to antagonize the strikers. There proved to be no necessity for him to do anything, however.

The strikers held a brief meeting on the common and then adjourned to await the arrival of re-enforcements from Streator. These arrived at 11 o'clock, but in the meantime Lieut.-Gov. Gill, President J. A. Crawford and Vice-President James A. Murray arrived on a special train. A conference was held between some of the men and Manager Devlin in the latter's private car, but nothing came of it.

Lieut.-Gov. Gill was asked to speak to them and he agreed to do so. Mr. Gill spoke briefly, counseled peaceful methods and advised the men to go back to their homes. There was nothing to be gained by congregating in Toluca, he said, and serious trouble might come of it. The state did not wish to interfere in the matter, but it would have to if there was any violence and if people were not left in peaceful possession of their property. There were other ways of gaining all legitimate ends besides resorting to force, and those should be adopted.

"Go back to your homes," urged the lieutenant-governor, "and show yourselves to be peaceful, law-abiding citizens. You can gain nothing by remaining here and you don't know at what minute you may be involved in serious trouble. Let the Toluca miners decide for themselves what they will do. It is their right."

Lieut.-Gov. Gill's remarks were well received by the men, and he was followed by Messrs. Crawford and Murray, who also asked that the Toluca miners be allowed to decide for themselves what they would do.

There was a brief conference among the leaders of the men at the conclusion of the speeches, and then they announced that they had agreed to act upon the advice of the lieutenant-governor and return to their homes. Mr. Devlin said he would furnish them with special trains and immediately set to work to have them made up, while Mr. Gill wired Gen. Wheeler that the danger was passed and that the troops would not be needed.

At 10 o'clock last night the miners decided to repudiate their action of the afternoon and hold another meeting at 4 p. m. to-day to reconsider. The colored miners held a secret conference and appointed a delegation to represent them at the meeting with instructions to vote the entire colored contingent solidly against suspension. They also voted to return to work Monday, regardless of the action of the meeting.

LASALLE, Ill., April 28.—The strikers returned to this city last night on a special train on the Burlington furnished by Acting Gov. Gill. They soon dispersed and went quietly to their homes.

IN PLACE OF NEWSPAPER STORIES.

President McKinley Sends Bulletins to the Miners in Many States.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—The postal and police officers working on the "infernal machine" case say they expect startling developments soon implicating persons in the coke region of Pennsylvania. The workers of the country are to be regularly furnished with bulletins on the strike situation. Official bulletin No. 1 was prepared yesterday at the national headquarters of the United Mine Workers. The following statements are given with detailed information regarding each Pennsylvania leads the fight with 55,000 in line. The strike in the coke regions of that state, where over 10,000 men are out, makes the suspended miners of Pennsylvania 65,000. In Maryland the miners have not yet joined the movement. In West Virginia about one-half of the miners have struck. In Virginia the Pocahontas field is still at work, and will continue. In Ohio, out to a man. Kentucky and Tennessee reports show 6,000 men idle. The miners of Alabama are out, and there is every indication the strike will be long. The miners of the bituminous district of Indiana are solid, and the probabilities are that the block coal miners will join the movement about May 1. Everything indicates the whole state of Illinois will be practically idle by May 1. With the exception of Rich Hill, Missouri is in line. Kansas miners are at work. Part of Iowa is idle, and the question of all coming out will be settled at the convention at Albia May 2. The miners of Indian Territory are still out. About 1,500 men quit work in Colorado April 21, but it is not probable the strike will become general in that state.

MASSILLON, Ohio, April 28.—One hundred and fifty locked out coal miners held a mass meeting to devise means for providing for the destitute miners here. A committee was appointed and instructed to circulate a petition soliciting money and provisions from Massillon merchants. The families of many miners are on the verge of starvation.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 28.—Unless the coal miners strike is ended within a few days the price of coal in this city will have to be raised.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 28.—The Union Steamboat company will reduce the speed of the steamers Tioga, Jewett, Owego and Chemung of the line to economize in coal consumption.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 28.—It is predicted if the coal strike lasts another week the supply of coal here will be exhausted. A number of large mills have been compelled to close.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 28.—Bradford, Stewart, Galloway, Palos, and a few other small mining camps joined the strike yesterday, adding several hundred men to the list.

MURPHYSBORO, Ill., April 28.—Four hundred and seventy-five miners at Caterville, Williamson county, went out yesterday. Except Holiday's mines, at Muddy Valley, all miners in Jackson county are out. Men at Sato have joined the strike.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 28.—At least 2,500 New River miners went out yesterday. This may precipitate a general strike throughout the Kanawha Valley region.

JELICO, Tenn., April 28.—The unemployed and striking miners of the Jelico region have made threats of forcing the Coal Creek men to lay down the picks if they do not come out May 1.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., April 28.—At noon to-day all miners employed in the coal mines in Evansville and vicinity will go out. Should the strike last long it will leave Evansville in bad shape, causing manufacturers, the water works, and street railroads to shut down.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 28.—The mining situation in St. Clair County, Ill., has assumed a serious aspect, and from present appearances there will be a pretty general strike of the coal miners between now and Monday.

INDIANA MINERS ALL OUT.

President McKinley Says Six Thousand Men Have Joined the Strike.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 28.—President McKinley of the state miners' union says that the strike in Indiana is practically complete and that 6,000 miners are out. He received a telegram from President McBride of the national association this morning stating that the outlook was most encouraging. The only mines now in operation are a few small ones in lower Clay county and a bituminous mine in the Evansville district.

BRAZIL, Ind., April 28.—The block coal miners' committee met the operators and blankly refused to accept their proposition to pay 80 cents per ton until the strike in general was settled. Most of the miners are out, having suspended work yesterday.

Coke Strike Now General.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 28.—The coke strikers have adopted peaceful plans for the future. The foreigners who in former strikes terrorized the community with pistol and torch now agree to follow the English-speaking workmen and abstain from violence. The plan of the leaders is to organize the men at all the works and not molest those who want to work. The strike is now general.

Victory for Union Men.

ELWOOD, Ind., April 28.—The strike at Lippincott's Alexandria glass works is ended at last after a stay out of only three days. A non-union man was employed by the company, who refused to discharge him, and the 400 union men simply walked out and closed the plant. The man was discharged and the strikers returned to work.

Condition of Illinois Schools.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 28.—State Superintendent Raab yesterday gave out some public school statistics for 1893. The total enrollment in the public schools of the state for the year was 526,025, an increase of 16,633 over that of 1892.

ELECTRIC fans will soon be buzzing.

NEW TARIFF BILL LIKE M'KINLEY'S

DIFFERS FROM IT ONLY IN THE SCHEDULES ON WOOL.

Sugar Is Now the Question Under Debate—New Measure Cannot Possibly Pass By June—Senator Aldrich Created Excitement Yesterday—Cullom Makes a Protection Speech.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Senator Aldrich invited the democrats yesterday to take a vote on the unamended Wilson bill and Senator Harris, after conferring with his colleagues, accepted, but of course no vote was had, the proceedings being in the nature of a bluff on both sides. The measure which is likely to become a law in the end is now in the government printing office. It has been drafted after consultation of the President and Secretary Carlisle on one side and members of the finance committee and the ways and means committee on the other. With the exception of free wool it does not differ so greatly from the McKinley law, the other changes being principally in the schedules, and even wools are raised above the finance committee's rate. Sugar is the unfinished item of the bill. It is idle, however, to talk of it being passed by June. If they have good luck and if they really secure forty-three democratic senators the managers of the bill may get it through some time during June. The first test will come on the sugar schedule, but that will not be for two or three weeks yet. If forty-three senators vote for the schedule as accepted by President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle and the democratic majority in the finance committee the republicans will accept this as evidence that the bill is going to be put through.

CULLOM SPEAKS FOR PROTECTION.

The Illinois Senator Against the Democratic Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—No general business was transacted in the senate yesterday, Mr. Harris moving as soon as the session began that the tariff bill be taken up. There was some resistance to this plan, particularly by Mr. Dubois, but the motion passed—29 to 16. Mr. Dolph waived his right to the floor and Mr. Lindsay addressed the senate. He said the Wilson bill is not what such a measure should be, but it is infinitely better than the existing law. Tariff reform, which should be effected at once, would hasten the return of better times upon an enduring and constitutional basis. It is idle to say that an income tax can not be collected. Experience will soon make known the loop-holes of escape and they will be closed, just as have been closed the loop-holes through which in the early days of our internal revenue system those who were willing to commit a perjury or fraud or both tried to escape the payment of internal taxes. It is a waste of time, he said, to combat those charges that the pending bill is sectional or was so intended to be.

Mr. Sherman disputed the assertion of Mr. Lindsay that the strikes at Homestead were due to the McKinley bill. Mr. Lindsay retorted that manufacturers' natural desire was to reduce wages without respect to rates of duties.

Senator Cullom also addressed the senate. He said in his speech:

"The initial policy and the groundwork of the enlightened universe is protection. The civilized world has grown out and away from barbaric free trade and has developed a very universal recognition of the protective idea. Government means protection. Any government must maintain itself and must protect its people."

Senator Cullom denounced the income tax as a sandbagging proposition and then proceeded to criticize in detail the various schedules of the bill. He argued that the tariff bill should be taken out of politics altogether and made a matter of mathematical determination and demonstration, and concluded:

"It is a business question, but of course necessarily a political one, as in it is involved the great question of raising revenue for the support of the government. I propose to commit to a commission of experts the task of working out the basis upon which an equitable tariff act can be constructed, leaving to congress the work of enacting such a tariff law with all the facts before it as may be required in order to secure the proper amount of revenue and adjust wages to labor without disturbing the equity of the general scheme of protection. This tariff commission, if properly constructed, would be able to avoid the interminable incongruities which give so much annoyance to the administrative branch of the government."

Mr. Cullom spoke for two hours and twenty minutes and was followed by Mr. Dolph, who gave the fifth installment of his speech.

Shortly after 5 o'clock Mr. Harris asked how much longer Senator Dolph proposed to talk; he had already spoken four days.

Mr. Dolph said he had been interrupted so much that his speech had been unintentionally prolonged. If no one had a fixed speech for to-day he hoped that he would be allowed to have the floor so that he could finish by 3 o'clock.

At 5:25 p. m. the senate adjourned.

HOLDS THE STAKES—THE GRIDIRON.

A SHERIFF DEFIED BY THE COXEYITES.

MILITIA CALLED OUT TO BRING THEM TO TIME.

Stole a B. & O. Train at Mount Sterling, Ohio and County Officers Could Do Nothing With Them—Sacramento Contingent Tired of Hard Walking.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—[Special]—A train load of militia left at 11:30 this morning for Mount Sterling where the Coxeyites seized a B. & O. freight train. The sheriff made a demand on them this morning with fifty deputies, but they refused to get off the train and the sheriff was afraid to act and asked for militia. The row was the result of the coming of Detectives Mahoney, Murphy, Bauer, Hessler, with a posse of 206 men, arrived here in a special train from Columbus at 1 a. m. yesterday. Their purpose is to drive Galvin's 285 industrial off the Baltimore & Ohio railroad property. Gov. McKinley sanctioned this movement. The army is encamped beside the stolen train and has guards out to prevent surprise. A dispatch from Mount Sterling at 2:50 a. m. says: Galvin's army was approached by the detectives two miles east of here. Galvin refused to move on and dared the detectives to fight.

KELLY EXPECTS HELP AT DES MOINES

Federated Trades and Knights of Labor He Thinks Will Contribute.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 28.—[Special]—General Kelly expects to reach this city tomorrow morning and relies upon the federated trades and Knights of Labor for material assistance and has received positive assurance that he and his army will be taken care of. The railroad men say there will be no weakening on their part and that the men will not be given an excursion over the country on any line leading out of Des Moines. They are massing their forces there and taking all precautions to prevent trouble. The safest prediction to make regarding Des Moines is that if transportation is not furnished there will be trouble. That is as far as many of the men will walk. If a train is not furnished they will seize one if they can elude deputy sheriffs, detectives, and possibly the militia. It has been hoped that at Des Moines the army would divide into small divisions, equally apportioned to the trunk lines east, of which there are five, but this hope will hardly be realized.

ALL READY FOR COXEY.

Washington Swarming With Detectives—Authorities Prepared to Act.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The national capital is now ready for the Coxey invasion. The army can come as soon as it likes. The police have been recruited and drilled to the perfection point. So has the militia. The regulars are always ready. The detective force has been increased by men from Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. All the incoming trains are being most carefully watched and suspicious characters shadowed. Detectives are at the main entrances to the city and all arrivals will be thoroughly watched until the invaders have come and gone. The authorities are maintaining great secrecy about their preparations. They admit, though, that all is in readiness, and the look of confidence and relief upon their faces gives indorsement to their words.

CANNOT STOP INSIDE THE CITY.

Des Moines City Orders Kelly's Army to Stop Outside and Move On.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 28.—At the meeting of the city council last evening the scheme of the citizens' committee to form the camp in Crocker park was unanimously vetoed and a resolution passed directing the mayor to employ as many extra police as are necessary to prevent the army stopping inside the city limits. The police were ordered to conduct the army at once to some point east of the city limits, where such supplies as may be contributed will be delivered, and a cordon of police is to be placed between them and the city to prevent any member of the army returning to the city. They are also to be notified that they must move on as soon as possible. The city will not take any steps to secure transportation for them.

Gen. Frye's Army Grows Rapidly.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 28.—Gen. Frye's army arrived in Indianapolis less than 300 strong, but the army has grown to 1,000 men or over. The board of health visited the camp and vaccinated all who could not show that they had been treated at Terre Haute. The Indianapolis papers came out with scathing write-ups of the army and demanded that the governor shall order the division to get out of the state at once. Gen. Frye says he will remain in Indianapolis until he gets ready to depart and defies the officers to interfere with his movements.

State Militia Called Out.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 28.—A battalion of militia was called out here at midnight. Ninety men responded to the call within forty-five minutes, but most of them were dismissed and told to await orders. Col. Green denies that there was any other motive than an emergency call to test the availability, but lie, with six orderlies, kept watch at the armory during the night. All trains here will be closely guarded to keep Coxeyites from stealing them.

Hogan's Army Still at Forsythe.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 28.—The contingent of the commonwealth army that was arrested by the United States at Forsythe is still at that point waiting orders from Washington to their captors for their disposition. There are 331 men, and they are guarded by Col. Page. He has been ordered to turn them over to the marshal, but that officer seems in no hurry to take them in charge, and the Montana civil authorities are slow in moving.

Grayson at Fort Morgan.

FORT MORGAN, Colo., April 28.—Grayson's commonwealth army of 120 men arrived here yesterday, some in wagons and others walking. Their attempts to capture an east bound train on the Julesburg branch of the Gulf road or on the Burlington & Missouri have been frustrated, as all trains are under orders to pass their camps without stopping.

Deputies Guard Union Pacific Trains.

TROUTDALE, Ore., April 28.—Fifty deputies who came here last night under United States Marshal Grady and Sheriff Kelly deterred the Portland contingent of the commonwealth army from capturing a Union Pacific train at this point.

Growth of Commonweal Armies.

CHICAGO, April 28.—Few changes, principally in the number of men reported in the larger armies, took place in the lining up of the commonweal brigades yesterday. These made the apparent total strength 7,951.

Militia Ready to Move.

TACOMA, Wash., April 28.—The First regiment state militia has received orders to be in readiness to proceed to Puyallup. The militiamen here assembled at their armory at midnight.

DEBS AND HILL CLINCH.

All Great Northern Men Ordered to Quit Work.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 28.—All efforts to settle the Great Northern strike have failed and President Debs of the American Railway union yesterday issued orders for a strike on all the Minnesota divisions of the Great Northern. This completes the strike from St. Paul to the coast. President Hill of the Great Northern again proposed his plan of arbitration at the last conference between the men's committee and the road, but it was refused.

President Hill is confident he has men enough to run the road, but the strikers say he is misinformed. The order to show cause why the injunction prayed for in the case of the Great Northern against Oleson and others to restrain them from interfering by force, threats or intimidation with interstate commerce on the road or with those employed to carry on interstate commerce in place of those who quit the service of the road, came on for hearing in the United States Circuit court yesterday, Judge Sanborn presiding. L. B. Foster stated that he had no objection to the issuance of the injunction, but asked the court what the meaning of the word "intimidation" was. The court defined it as the overawing by threat of superior force, even though nothing be said indicating that force would be used, a display of force being sufficient. Mr. Foster then repeated that he had no objection to the issuance of the injunction and that he should obey it.

ST. CLOUD, Minn., April 28.—Freight train No. 15, the first over the Great Northern since the beginning of the strike, pulled in at 7:15 yesterday. No obstruction was offered by the strikers, as they were confident the freight would not leave the St. Cloud yard, claiming that the company will not find a crew to take it out on the Fergus Falls division. No move had been made to start the train.

HELENA, Mont., April 28.—Proceedings were begun in the State Supreme court yesterday, in the name of the attorney-general, to compel the Great Northern to operate its lines within Montana.

FOR A NATION'S HERO.

Citizens of Galena, Ill., Celebrate Grant's Birthday.

GALENA, Ill., April 28.—This town resounded yesterday with the echo of that artillery which was music to the ears of Ulysses S. Grant, and in memory and imagination the people fought again the battles of their hero. It was the anniversary of his birthday and the people did honor to his name.

The exercises began early in the afternoon soon after a special from Chicago had arrived. The orator of the day and the Chicago party were met by a reception committee headed by Mayor George S. Avery. A parade was formed and the column moved to Turner hall, headed by the Galena Juvenile band costumed in bright Zouave uniforms. Luther Laffin Mills of Chicago was the orator of the day. Observances of the birthday of the hero were very generally observed throughout the country.

Coffins Denied a Long Delay.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 28.—The attorneys for Francis and Percival Coffin and Albert S. Reed, whose trial was postponed until next week on account of the jury bribery exposure, went before Judge Baker yesterday and demanded a continuance for five weeks. Judge Baker promptly denied the motion and said the new trial should begin next Tuesday.

WILLIE DOES HATE TO PAY MADELINE.

CELEBRATED BREACH OF PROMISE CASE APPEALED.

Judge Bradley Refuses to Grant a Motion For a New Trial and the Motion of Appeal Was at Once Filed By "the Meanest Man Since Adam."

WASHINGTON, April 28.—[Special]—Judge Bradley has overruled the motion for a new trial in the Breckenridge case, and this morning a motion of appeal was filed.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The question of allowing the story of the Breckenridge-Pollard trial, as printed in book form by a Chicago publishing firm, to pass through the mails is under consideration by the attorney-general.

STRIKES HURT TRADE.

Labor Disturbances Retard Business in All Circles.

NEW YORK, April 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "When accounts of great strikes and labor disturbances crowd all newspapers it is idle to look for much improvement in business. That every week of idleness for so many men must appreciably lessen the aggregate power to purchase products of labor is evident. But in spite of all, some improvement still appears."

"Several large auction sales of textile goods have disturbed markets and brought remarkably low prices, for flannels and blankets about 25 per cent below the previous quotations, and 15 per cent below the previous sales. Sales of wool at the three chief markets were 5,841,958 pounds, against 3,893,400 last year, and prices of some scarce kinds have advanced a cent, but new wool is being taken at the lowest figures yet reported. Continual reports of changes in the tariff bill add to difficulties of producers and dealers. Speculative markets are naturally lower. Western receipts of wheat have been only 1,156,479 bushels, against 5,717,357 for the same week last year, and Atlantic exports 941,958 bushels, against 1,243,335 last year, but the price has dropped 1 cent. Corn is inactive and a shade higher. Pork, lard, and coffee a shade lower. With continued business depression and new crops drawing near even the unlimited supplies of idle money do not kindle speculative hopes."

"The increase and liabilities of firms failing still continues, and the aggregate reported for the third week in April was only $2,792,462, and for three weeks of April $9,988,553, of which $2,110,194 were manufacturing and $3,841,095 of trading concerns. The failures have been very equally divided as to sections, the east having the larger number, with liabilities of $2,377,000, the south $2,572,000 and the west $3,133,000. The failures this week have been 180 in the United States, against 216 last year, for the first time in many months showing an decrease, and in Canada twenty-six, against twenty-two last year. The list includes none of great importance."

STRIKERS HAVE CASH.

Great Northern Men Said to Be Able to Stand a Long Siege.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 28.—The Trade and Labor Assembly adopted resolutions indorsing the American Railway Union in its present strike on the Great Northern system and promising financial and moral aid. The strikers are said to have enough money of their own to stand a six-weeks' siege and enough has been subscribed to carry them as many months.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., April 28.—A meeting of 400 men from nearly all the railroads entering the city was held last night and the question of going out on a strike was considered. All the men admitted were members of the American Railway Union. It is believed they will strike.

MEN ASKED BREAD.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Miners Parade and Demand Food.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., April 28.—Five hundred men paraded the streets here yesterday afternoon and demanded of the poor commissioner instant relief. For a time the commissioner was undecided what step to take, but after a consideration of the matter the crowd was pacified by an order for $2 worth of provisions on the stores to each man and all is quiet now. The situation is critical, however, and trouble is feared unless relief of a more permanent character comes soon.

Many families are absolutely starving and relief of some kind must be afforded at once.

Indians Trail a Tramp for a Mob.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, April 28.—Up to a late hour the tramp who brutally assaulted Miss Maggie Puth near Tama yesterday afternoon had not been captured. The Mosquitos Indians from the Sac and Fox agency at Tama have been sent out with dogs, and it is said have struck a trail. It is believed the tramp will be caught, and the determination to lynch him is as strong as ever.

No National League Games Yesterday.

No games were scheduled for the National league yesterday.

SHE LOCKS HER BOY OUT ALL NIGHT.

INJUDICIOUS MOTHER'S ACTION 'CRITICIZED.

Mistaken Idea of Discipline Results in Keeping a Sixteen Year Old Youth On the Street At All Hours—Too Many Means of Temptation At Best.

Such romance as few stories suggest is the tale of General John B. Callis' life. His experience on the field of Gettysburg, recounted by The Gazette of Wednesday night, was but a hint of the stirring tales which might be based on the general's life. General Callis was in charge of government troops in the south during the "reconstruction" period and was entrusted with the duty of protecting the freedmen. As he stood in front of headquarters in Huntsville, Ala., one day a negro hurried up with the word that a man had a colored woman tied to a post near town and was whipping her. General Callis jumped on his horse and spurred away. He found the man cow-hiding his victim most brutally.

"Stop that!" he cried.

"I'll stop when I get ready," said the southerner defiantly.

General Callis dismounted and started into the yard. There was a movement of the other man's hand that told of a pistol, and the general's sword was out in an instant. The next moment the woman-beater had been cut down and the woman was free.

A few months after that the negroes of northern Alabama presented him with the $300 gold watch which he carries. It is from Tiffany's and on the back the scene of the whipping post is engraved. Inside is an appropriate inscription.

Relieved By General Ruger.

General Callis held command at Huntsville until he was elected to congress from the Fifth Alabama district in 1869. Then he was relieved by General Thomas H. Ruger. It was about this time that Ku Klux were riding. General Callis was in a group of northern men, army officers, state officers and others in front of the Huntsville hotel in 1871 when three hundred of the white robed cavalry swept in from every direction, surrounded the public square and fired a volley that killed sixteen of the hotel gathering. Before the smoke had cleared away the riders were gone as silently and mysteriously as they had come. Only one was left. He was shot by a negro who stood near the hotel, and when picked up proved to be a tailor whose shop was next door to General Callis' office. He had been a captain of confederate cavalry and was the leader of the Ku Klux band.

The man by whom General Callis was rescued on the field of Gettysburg was Colonel Thomas S. Kenan of the Forty third North Carolina Infantry. Colonel Kenan and General Callis never knew one another's names until August of last year. In 1885 a letter from Dr. J. C. O'Neal of Gettysburg, who cared for the Wisconsin man, gave a few details. "I remember," he said, "that you were wounded in the right side, the ball entering the liver. The detachment leaving you with me also left some gold, (I think $50) to have you embalmed."

General Callis was of a North Carolina family and the letters that passed between him and Colonel Kenan last fall were published in the Raleigh State Chronicle. The Wisconsin man took occasion to declare very emphatically that the north and south would have been merged in one great brotherhood long ago were it not for the professional politicians. His letter led the southern papers to remark: "Thank heaven, the war is over at last. Everything we have heard from the north heretofore led us to believe that we might need our rifles almost any time."

General Callis has been a guest of his brother-in-law, I. Farnsworth, of this city, for several days, but left for Lancaster this morning.

Henry Dillenbeck begins work for the Janesville Water company Monday morning. Mr. Dillenbeck has been firing on the C. & N. W. but the democratic times threw him out of a job. Maxey Should Prove An Alibi.

Of course the fact that Supt. W. G. Maxey was in town Thursday night had nothing to do with the fact that Alexander Graham's house was robbed but people who remember the debates at the water works meeting in the Business Men's rooms want Superintendent Maxey to prove an alibi.

WORLD'S FAIR MONEY TO SPARE.

Mrs. Winans Attending the Final Session of the State Board.

Mrs. John Winans has been in Madison for the last few days helping to close up the work of the Wisconsin Board of World's Fair Commissioners.

The chief business before the board was the reviewing of Secretary Graves' report, a ponderous affair comprising about five hundred type-written pages. Secretary Graves says, however, that there will be a balance to the state's credit from the $165,000 of state money appropriated to the use of the commission in addition to the gifts of individuals for the Wisconsin exhibit.

The official records at the office of the secretary of state show the following balances to the credit of the board from the state appropriations for the several exhibits made:

Agricultural exhibit.....$6,144
Fishes.....1,467
Forestry.....1,000
Educational.....938

Forbidden Joys.

A verdant path I would eagerly trod,
In beauty and shade it lies,
And it leads to her, I dearly love,
Yet I'm forbidden to gaze in her eyes.
Ah, my queen of women sweet
To know thee is to have loved indeed
In an atmosphere of heaven so pure,
But the loss of thee leaves the heart to bleed.

O, sacred tie of love, when true
A blessing thou art, a perfect dream,
One constant joy, eternal bliss,
Enough for any heart, 'twould seem,
But alas, I must not tread this path
It leads to jealousy and cruel strife,
I am alone, only despair in my heart
The woman I love is another man's wife.

HOW THE SONG WAS BORN.

"Sherman's March to the Sea" Has a Romantic History.

How "Sherman's March to the Sea" was written has never been told in Janesville. J. C. Metcalf's story on that subject at the G. A. R. re-ception preceding E. O. Kimbberly's song was of much interest. He said:

"The songs of a nation constitute an important part of its political history and its literature. But we shall very briefly here refer only to national songs and odes as an expression of sentiments of patriotism and the triumphs of victory. These subjects in all ages have invoked the muse and moved into action poetic inspiration. Ancient Egypt inscribed on her monoliths and columns her songs of victory; Jewish, Assyrian, Grecian and Roman literature are embellished with poetic genius and patriotic sentiments, and all down through the ages to modern times, we find France has her 'Marseilles Hymn,' England has 'God Save the Queen,' Scotland has 'Bruce's Address' and the United States of America, the greatest nation that ever existed on this earth has her 'Star Spangled Banner' and 'Hail, Columbia,' her 'Marching Through Georgia,' and 'Sherman's March to the Sea.'"

Those noted songs sprung from the deepest inspirations of patriotic emotions and shall remain co-existent with the nation's history. Of one of these songs we have not a word to say. During the first part of February, 1865, two lieutenants of Iowa regiments, (Byers and Rockwood), while confined in the rebel prison at Columbia, South Carolina, composed the words and music of "Sherman's March to the Sea," and a few days later were released by Sherman's army in that historic and triumphant march from Atlanta to the Sea, which broke the heart of the confederacy.

Some days later this celebrated song was shown to the heroic leader whose grand military achievements furnished the subject for the poet and inspired his heart and brain. The old hero admired and loved it for the patriotic sentiment that breathed through every line, and while at Goldsborough, North Carolina, sent for the youthful leader of the noted instrumental band of the First Brigade Fifth Division Fifteenth Army Corps, Edwin O. Kimbberly, then a young man of scarcely twenty years, possessing wonderful vocal powers as a singer as well as a master of instrumental music, and asked him to sing this song in his presence, and which he did from the manuscript page, to the great delight of the old veteran whose military fame has encircled the civilized world.

Comrade Kimbberly, for several years past has been an honored citizen of Janesville and a member of G. A. R. Post No. 20. He has sang this historic song by request on many noted occasions since his first rehearsal in 1895. He is with us tonight any will again sing "Sherman's March to the Sea." And may the grand commander of the grand armies of the universe throughout all times, permit him long to live and sing this historic song to delight and cheer the hearts of his old comrades in that memorable and heroic struggle for "one country and one flag," and to inspire with patriotic emotions the hearts of those who are now taking the place of the old soldiers as ready defenders of the old flag and of the honor and perpetuity of our glorious republic, whose destiny will very soon rest alone with them.

SAVED BY HIS FOE ON A BLOODY FIELD

MORE OF GENERAL CALLIS' ROMANTIC STORY.

He Saw Exciting Times During the War and His Duties During the Reconstruction Period Also Called For Nerve and Daring—Ku Klux in the Saddle.

EDITOR GAZETTE: I am informed on good authority that in Janesville the mother of a certain sixteen-year old boy is in the habit of locking him out of house and home at night, if he isn't in by nine o'clock, and that although he may come to the door and plead to come in, she will not admit him. I am positive that her course of action arises from nothing but a mistaken idea of disciplining the boy; but I wish she would stop to think seriously of what she may be driving him to, if she refuses his incoming to the only home he has. It is cruel to the boy, and I believe the time will come when this cruelty will be repaid to the mother, with compound interest, when he shall have acquired such habits as nights spent anywhere that he can, will teach him. I wish I could plead with her personally, rather to lock the boy in than to lock him out at night. With the hundreds of wives that Satan is using in this town to catch young boys, how can she, how dare she deny the boy the sanctuary of home?

This is a case where no one feels justified in interfering personally, and I have written this to the Gazette with the hope and the prayer that it may cause the boy's mother to realize before it is too late, what she is doing. A SONLESS MOTHER.

JUDICIAL VAGABOND.

The Omaha Bee's stenographic report of the trial of the Rosewater contempt case before Judge Scott, of Omaha, presents an interesting story of judicial assumption and insolence.

Throughout the taking of testimony Judge Scott bristled with malicious interpolations and a remarkable feature was the fact that he had previously prepared an order of commitment and could hardly wait for the conclusion of the testimony, which was favorable to Editor Rosewater, before he blurted out a tirade of abuse of that gentleman and without asking the prisoner if he had anything to say, as is customary, hastened to deliver judgment for the defendant's imprisonment for 30 days for criticizing in his paper the action of the judge in a case which had been adjudicated. It was proven, however, that Rosewater did not write the local article or order it to be written.

Such ostentatious malevolence by a judge in a district court bench and such penetrability to criticism, rather seems to confirm the justness of the Rosewater charge that Scott had shown unlawful partiality in the disposition of certain cases. The idea that a judge is above criticism in a matter adjudicated is an assumption of which the judicial mind everywhere should be relieved. A judge, as a public official, is lawfully subject to criticism, not only as to adjudicated cases, but as to his rulings pending the determination of a case. Of late there have been several cases of judicial assumption of sacred and inviolable attributes throughout the country which cannot be too severely condemned. A judge on the bench exuding malice and personal hostility toward a defendant in a case on trial before him, is not competent to hold such position.

A VOTE AGAINST SOCIALISM.
By a vote of 54 to 6 the senate refused to pass the Allen resolution condemning the district commissioners for issuing a proclamation of warning to the "commonwealers" approaching Washington. This was a sufficient rebuke to Senator Allen and the other senators supporting and sympathizing with a movement which has already been attended by violence, robbery and bloodshed and which Coxe himself, who is the mildest of the crusaders, says may result in a collision at Washington, if the demands of the "commonweal" are not complied with.

It is well that the conservative spirit of the nation should be awakened to the danger of feeding the socialistic spirit which is imminent in extreme forms in the "commonweal" ranks. Senator Wolcott very appropriately condemned the baleful tendency, which has been stimulated by the compromises with the theory, derived from French socialism, that "society" (the state) must do everything for the individual; that "society" can make citizens bad or good according to the measure of its neglect or coddling of the masses. Strange cropping out, in the great republic of the western hemisphere, where the independence of the individual has been our boast, of one of the most pernicious heresies which have cursed the old world.

All efforts to effect a peaceable settlement of the Great Northern strike has finally failed and it has now become an appeal to force and endurance. The A. R. U. is measuring its strength against that of the railroad company and the contest promises to be a very bitter one.

The fact that the New York banks hold $82,000,000 which nobody wants to borrow for business purposes shows at a glance what the country thinks of the democratic plan of tariff reform.

There has been a decrease of nearly 24 per cent. in the revenue during the present fiscal year, and a corresponding diminution of public patience with the party that is responsible for this miserable showing.

The principal effect of the coalminers' strike will be to give the mine owners a pretext for raising the price of coal, and the laboring people will be the worst sufferers from such an event.

The South Carolina dispensary law has been declared unconstitutional, but Governor Tillman can point with pride to the fact that the state has made $40,000 from the sale of whisky under it.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

Chicago's Columbian Museum. Chicago was naturally very proud of the great World's fair, and the interesting exhibits she has succeeded in preventing from slipping through her fingers will be shown for years to come in the new Columbian museum at Jackson park. The exhibits are being installed in the Art palace, which hereafter will be known as the Columbian museum, and F.

J. V. Skiff, who made such a good record as chief of the mines and mining departments of the World's fair, has been chosen director in chief at a salary of $6,000 a year. Mr. Skiff was for several years the manager of the Denver Tribune and went to Chicago as one of the national World's fair commissioners from Colorado.

DARK AND COLD AS ZERO.

An Experiment Showing the Vast Pressure in the Ocean's Lowest Depths.

The peculiar physical conditions of the deep seas may be briefly stated to be these: It is absolutely dark so far as actual sunlight is concerned; the temperature is only a few degrees above freezing point; the pressure is enormous; there is little or no movement of the water; the bottom is composed of a uniform, fine, soft mud, and there is no plant life. All of these physical conditions one can appreciate, says the Philadelphia Press, except the enormous pressure. At a depth of 2,500 fathoms the pressure is, roughly speaking, two and one-half tons per square inch—that is to say, the pressure per square inch upon the body of every animal that lives at the bottom of the Atlantic ocean is about twenty-five times greater than the pressure that will drive a railway train. Professor Moseley describes an interesting experiment in point made during the voyage of the Challenger. Mr. Buchanan hermetically sealed at both ends a thick glass tube full of air several inches in length. He wrapped it in flannel and placed it in a wide copper tube—one of those used to protect the deep sea thermometers when sent down with the sounding apparatus. This copper tube was closed by a lid fitting loosely and with holes in the bottom of it, and the copper bottom of the tube similarly had holes bored through it. The water thus had free access to the interior of the tube when it was lowered into the sea and the tube was necessarily constructed with that object in view, so that, in its ordinary use, the water would freely reach the contained thermometer. The copper case containing the sealed glass was sent down to a depth of 2,000 fathoms and drawn up again. It was then found that the copper wall of the case was bulged and bent inward opposite the place where the glass tube lay, just as if it had been crumpled inward by being violently squeezed. The glass tube itself, within its flannel wrapper, was found, when withdrawn, reduced to a fine powder, like snow almost. What had happened was that the sealed glass tube, sinking to gradually increasing depth, had held out long against the pressure, but this at last had become too great for the glass to sustain and the tube had suddenly given way. So violent had been the collapse that the water had not had time to rush in at the perforations, but instead had crushed the copper wall and brought equilibrium in that manner, and this process is exactly the reverse of an explosion and is termed by Sir Wyville Thompson an "implosion."

An Old Railroad Man.

William M. Reed, who died in Cecil county, Maryland, the other day at the age of 90 years, became fifty-four years ago an employee of the Newcastle and Frenchtown railroad, one of the earliest railroads built in this country. The line was an important link in the route from New York and Philadelphia to Washington, and before there were railroads it was a turnpike with lumbering coaches that sometimes occupied many hours in making their journey of about sixteen miles. Then came a tramway with horse-drawn cars, and at length a true strap-iron railway with queer little cars and engines. Reed remained an employee of the company till the building of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railway brought the abandonment of the older route. The embankment of the abandoned line still runs, a green ridge, through many miles of cultivated farm land.

The Senate Is Eternal.

There is no such thing as "next senate," and so long as the constitution lasts there never will be. The senate of the United States is an eternal body. It never dies. It is to-day exactly the same assembly which met for the first time in 1789. Every second year it undergoes a change of membership, the terms of one class of members expiring. But that change neither ends the old body nor makes a new one.

BOLTS FROM ABOVE DID MUCH DAMAGE.

LIGHTNING STRUCK SEVERAL PLACES IN JANESVILLE.

Charles I. Sloan's Silver Chief Colt Killed and the Barn Nearly Fired—Gazette's Box Factory's Electric Motor Wrecked—Telephone Service Also More or Less Crippled.

There was death in the lightning-charged air yesterday, and several bolts struck in and around Janesville. The most expensive one was that which killed Charles I. Sloan's fine Silver Chief colt, and narrowly missed firing the big barn on the farm. The colt was standing near the corner of the building when a blinding flash came, accompanied by a crash that rocked the house, and the colt dropped dead in its tracks. It was a fine young horse, and was worth $200 at least. The telephone service was also more or less crippled, and the line between Janesville and Milwaukee was disabled. A bolt also wrecked the motor in the Gazette paper box factory and caused the shutting down of that institution. The bolt struck with an explosion like that of a cannon.

Many of the telephone lines around town were disabled by the heavy electrical discharges and are still out of use.

A TALE OF BLOOD TOLD BY A TRAMP.

SHOT BY A DETECTIVE WHILE COXEYING THE STATE.

Had a Gaping Wound In His Head But Dr. Joe Whiting Says it Was Not Made By a Bullet—Thomas J. Forbes the "Dipper" Held For Trial.

It was a gory story that Eugene Foster told when Constable Wallace Cochran took him in charge this morning. He alleged that a detective had attempted to snuff his life out by means of a large round barreled revolver. In proof of his assertion he showed a gaping wound on his left temple where the bullet turned a furrow. He claimed to have been fired upon while engaged in the peaceful pursuit of Coxeying across the country on a brake beam. His wound was a painful one that penetrated to the bone but Dr. J. B. Whiting, Jr., said that it was not gun shot wound. Foster is a tramp and the remnant of a "jag" still lingered about him. He said that the "outrage" occurred fifteen miles south of here, and the Janesville officers are inclined to think that he tried to whip City Marshal Appleby, of Beloit, and failed to note anything that happened after hostilities opened.

Thomas J. Forbes, the pickpocket, was held for trial on May 8 when he was brought before Judge Phelps this morning.

Mary Ann Rafter was out painting the town red last night and Officer Smith was called upon to preserve the peace. No arrests were made.

Not Waiting for the Wilson Bill.

Some dealers will tell you trade is dull, money tight, &c., &c., but this was not the case when our reporter called on the Wisconsin Carriage Top Co., the most wide awake carriage firm in the city. When asked the question as to trade, was told, "behind orders; have been since Jan. 1; never had better trade nor better outlook."

When asked for explanation, they said: "We try to make it an object for people to take the pains to see our work, we being on one side of town, and we have made that object in the finish of our goods and prices asked. The result is that our work is selling as fast as we can set it up, and our men are working twelve hours per day in some departments. Our trade this week was immense, and the 'Albemarle Stanhope' was admired by all. Everybody said, and good judges, too, 'that it was undoubtedly the finest vehicle and had the most style of any buggy in the city.' The 'Wis. King' was also a winner, and people tell us that it pays them to walk the extra block to see us."

An Introduction.

On the eighth page of this issue will be found a large advertisement of Zeigler's clothing house, a pants sale Monday. This is the commencement of a series of sales which they will conduct. Being connected with the large concern of Browning, King & Co., who manufacture and sell $9,000,000 worth of clothing in a year, and who pay out for labor alone $1,500,000 a year, Mr. Zeigler gets his clothing much cheaper than any clothing concern in Janesville. Zeigler actually buys clothing fifteen per cent. cheaper than any clothing house in the city, and sells them the same. Read his pants advertisement on the eighth page.

Capes and Jackets.

These warm days have created a very spirited demand for light weight capes and jackets, and every day additions to the stock place it in excellent condition to please you. Special value in capes at $2, in all colors, and three complete sample lines insures buyers a saving of at least one-third on every garment. Archie Reid.

Maby Willing to Risk It.

An illustration of the severity of the times is found in the fact that two London physicians lately advertised in a London daily paper, offering $5,000 to a man who would submit to an experimental surgical operation involving some risk. One hundred and forty-two answers were received.

Johnson's Oriental soap is the most delicate facial soap for ladies in existence. Sold at Smith's Pharmacy.

Janesville Doctor's Remedy Mischief Done By Surgeons in Detroit.

Dr. Joe Whiting assisted by Dr. E. F. Woods, removed four inches of rubber drainage tube from the body of J. V. Voorhees, a telegraph student today. It had been carelessly sewed up in his abdominal cavity by Detroit doctors in performing another operation last fall, and caused an abscess that nearly proved fatal. The operation today was at Oaklawn hospital.

LOCAL CHAT AND COMMENT

Brown Bros. & Lincoln have a men's shoe sale for Monday. Regular $5.00 shoes go for $3.50, $4.00 shoes $3.00, $3.00 shoes $2.00, $2.50 shoes $1.50.

The ladies of W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps, No. 21, desire to extend their sincere thanks to all who assisted in any way in entertaining the delegates to Department Convention.

Brown Bros. & Lincoln's great shoe sale is attracting widespread attention. Hundreds of people visit their store from neighboring towns to take advantage of the low prices offered.

Mrs. Rev. Frank Poorman, who has been visiting the last two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Merry, departed for her home at Athens, Ill., last evening on the 6:30 train.

Some one remarked the other day that nothing added so much to the attractiveness of a table as cut glass and solid silver. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers" think so too. That's why they have so fine a stock of cut glass and sterling silver.

Phil Caeke Jr., of Baraboo, was among the "stragglers," who remained in the city to look after the rear guard of the Grand Army. Phil loves to tarry with the Janesville boys. He enjoys their company, and the boys always give him a hearty welcome.

Dr. Walter B. Metcalf has come from Chicago to locate in this city. He will take charge of Dr. James Mills' practice for the next year but is here as a permanent resident. Dr. Metcalf is a graduate of the Chicago Medical College and has been for six years in the office of the chief surgeon of the U. S. N. W. road.

PITH AND PALAVER.

Binks—Did you ever see a cake-walk? Jinks—No; but I have seen a cheese that might have walked if given half a chance!

"Has Footlights made anything out of his play?" "Jerusalem, yes; he picked up a barrel of cabbages after his first performance."

Police Magistrate—I fine you $10. Culprit—But, your honor, I ain't got only $4.75. Police Magistrate—Then I fine you $4.75. Call the next case.

Benedict—Won't she marry you? Is there another man in the case? Singleton—I'm afraid there is. "That so? Do you know who it is?" "Yes; her father."

Mrs. Cortossel had been to the Corcoran art gallery. "What did you think of the statuary?" asked her hostess. "Well," was the meditative reply, "of course it's mighty poor taste and sinfully wasteful for people to over-dress. But I must say the ancients carried economy to an extreme."

A romantic marriage occurred lately at Fulton, Ky. Adolph Elkins and Miss Alice Mahoney were the contracting parties. It was agreed by them that they would try married life a year, and if found disagreeable to either, he or she was at liberty to withdraw, notwithstanding what the other party had to say.

Mr. Reader—The papers mention a number of instances in which labor unions have loaned money to employers in order to keep the works running during the dull times. Mrs. Reader—Yes, I noticed that but I don't believe it. "Why not?" "I told Bridget about it, and asked her to lend me some money to pay her wages, and she got as mad as a hornet."

At an evening party Dumley was introduced to a young lady, and after a remark about the weather he said gallantly: "And have I really the pleasure of meeting the beautiful Miss Blossom whose praises are being sounded by everybody?" "Oh, no, Mr. Dumley," the young lady replied: "the beautiful Miss Blossom to whom you refer is a cousin of mine." "Oh, that's it. Well, I thought there must be a mistake somewhere," said the gallant Dumley.

THE HABITAT OF PLANTS.

The hop grows wild in Europe from Norway to Italy.

The watermelon is indigenous to Africa, and grows best under the equator.

The common spinach is the only plant that has emigrated from New Zealand.

The beet is indigenous to the shores of the Mediterranean, where it still grows wild.

The garden radish is supposed to be a Chinese plant, which came west by way of India.

Private Pension Bills Passed.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Twenty-one private pension bills passed today. The bills were passed in twenty-one minutes. The remainder of the day was devoted to the consideration of private bills. A bill to refer an Alabama cotton claim to the court of claims met with strenuous opposition on the ground that it would open the way to other cotton claims aggregating $120,000,000, and was not voted on before the recess. The evening session was also devoted to pension bills.

THIEVES ABANDON STOLEN HORSES.

The Pursuit Supposed to Have Become so Hot That the Thieves Gave Up Their Plunder and Took to the Woods—None Were Taken From Janesville.

Horse thieves abandoned their plunder at Footville this morning and officers are now looking for the owners of the stolen equines. When the good people of that town arose this morning and looked about they spied ownerless horses tied to a fence. The thieves had evidently been hard pressed and had taken to the woods, leaving the equines behind. Chief Aheson was notified this morning but there are no horses missing from hereabouts.

ENGLAND'S JUMPER IS LIGHT OF FOOT.

JOSEPH PARKER SURPRISES
AMERICAN ATHLETES.

He Has an Unequaled Record for High and Long Jumping—Some Notable Feats in Backward Leaping—Traveling with a Circus.

AMONG THE MANY unique features of one of the big circuses of the year, the jumping of Joseph Parker stands out as a conspicuous attraction. With half a dozen chairs, as many nine-inch bricks, a pair of nine-pound dumb bells, and a healthy sized horse, Parker gives a series of exhibitions which rarely fail to command attention and applause.

The agile Englishman was born in Dudley, Worcestershire, thirty-two years ago, but subsequently moved to Tipton, which has been his headquarters for the past twenty years. In his street attire he looks too heavy for an athlete, and the modesty of his bearing adds to the deception. When stripped, however, a glance serves to convince the most casual observer that Parker's development is just what is claimed.

Parker's admirers claim that he is without a peer at standing forward, standing backward, and standing high jumping. If there is any man in this country who thinks that he can beat this Englishman a challenge and deposit will be promptly responded to by Parker and his backers. The latter declare they will contribute $1,000 or upward toward a stake. Parker says that any jumper who has more ambition than money can be accommodated with a friendly match. The exceptional feats which the Englishman claims to have accomplished under fair conditions include the following:

Ten standing jumps, with weights, 132 feet. The best recorded performance is 113 feet 5½ inches by M. W. Ford, Brooklyn, July 18, 1886. The latter jumped without weights. The longest distance covered with dumb bells, according to the records, is 112 feet 4 inches by J. Darby, Manchester, England, June, 1888.

Two standing jumps, with weights, 26 feet 2 inches. This is only excelled by the 26 feet 8½ inches which J. Darby is reported to have covered at Ashton-under-Lyne, England, Oct. 25, 1889.

Three standing jumps, with weights, 45 feet, at Blyth, St. Stephen's day, 1893, in a match to beat 43. The best accepted record is 41 feet 7 inches, by J. Darby, at London, October, 1888.

JOSEPH PARKER.

Darby is also reported to have covered 42 feet 6 inches at the same place, Sept. 19, 1892. The best American record is 40 feet 9¼ inches, by T. F. Kearney, at Oak Island, Mass., July 23, 1889. The same jumper cleared 42 feet 8 inches at Walpole, Mass., a month later.

One backward jump with weights, 11 feet 2 inches. There is no fully authenticated record for this style of jump, but T. F. Kearney is reported to have covered 12 feet 1¼ inches at Franklin Park, Boston, Sept. 24, 1889, measuring from heel to toe.

Two backward jumps with weights, 21 feet 7 inches, in a match with Hastings at Wolverhampton circus early this year, winning by 3 feet 2¼ inches. There are no figures on record in America for this event.

Three backward jumps, with weights, 31 feet 5 inches. The only event of this kind recorded in America is 30 feet 5 inches, measured from toe to toe, by J. McDermott at Lawrence, Mass., Aug. 14, 1886. The performance was never properly authenticated.

Jumping for height over bar, with ankles tied, 5 feet 6 inches, in a match with Hastings at Wolverhampton circus early this year. Parker won by 5 inches. J. Darby is reported to have cleared a similar height at Ashton-under-Lyne, England, Oct. 25, 1888.

CRICKET.

J. I. Scott will be seen on the Belmont team this year, having again settled in the Quaker City.

Efforts being made to form a central committee to govern matters of a local or international character do not appear likely to be crowned with success.

F. F. Kelly, the well-known left-handed bowler of the Chicago Cricket club, is now in business in New York and will probably play with the New Jersey Athletic association.

M. G. Bristowe, who will be remembered as one of the Canadian International team, recently met with a serious accident while playing hockey, and will be unable to take an active part in cricket for some time.

VELVETEENS AND VELVETS.

A Dazzling Display and Prices to Suit a Short Purse.

Corduroy in the regulation beaver, gray and brown shades has reappeared this season, while velveteens are shown in as large a variety of colors as silk velvets and are really beautiful in tint and texture. They are much more serviceable for ordinary wear than velvet, being unaffected by water, and are wider and far less costly, but these virtues are not sufficient to relegate them to a despised position in the wardrobe. Velveteen is often combined with fine wool goods in imported street gowns and is frequently embroidered in patterns for trimming purposes. Besides the plain varieties sold by the yard there are a number displayed having tiny silk embroidered dots or flecks in a contrasting color. There is also a kind having narrow ribs in two tones, which catch the light with a changeable effect. Besides the more subdued shades for gowns and dress trimmings, cherry, turquoise, lavender and all the brilliant and delicate tints now fashionable in silk velvets may be obtained in velveteen, although for what purpose these light colors are utilized it would be hard to guess, since there is an insurmountable prejudice against using velveteen in millinery.

As for velvets, the display is dazzling. Cherry, bright green and purple stand forth in fashionable prominence, a twist or knot of one of these colors being a favorite adornment of hats and bonnets. Prices this year are exceptionally low, and brilliant shades, which are usually more costly than dark ones, are now sold at the same valuation. Silk plushes have also come down surprisingly, fine qualities being offered at less than half the former price.

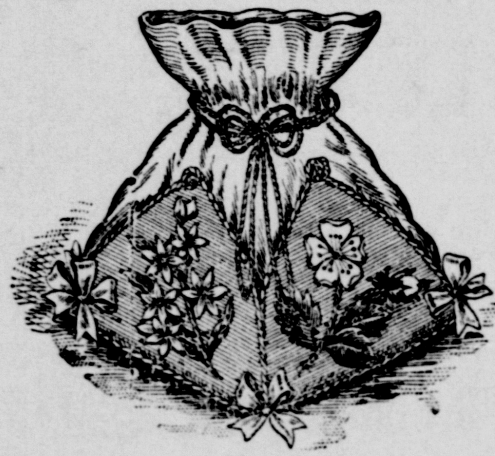

Since china silks came into such universal popularity surah has retired into the background, being used mainly for linings, and even for that purpose being often superseded by glaze changeable silks. It seems to be regaining favor, however, as it is seen in many of the new Parisian designs. Gauze evening gowns are often made up over underdresses of surah, and it is now beginning to form a part of more elaborate costumes. A sketch is given of a gown the skirt of which is of accordion plaited surah, Russian green in color. A second skirt of velvet of the same shade falls over it and is caught up on the left side by a rosette of ivory silk crepon. A gathered belt of crepon surrounds the waist of the tight velvet bodice, the upper part of which is covered with a puffed drapery of crepon bordered on the lower edge by an accordion plaited frill of surah. Similar frills pass over the shoulders, forming epaulets at the top of the balloon sleeves of crepon. A wrinkle crepon collar finishes the neck.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

BEGGING TO BE BOUGHT.

All Sorts of Pretty Pottery and China Are In That Posture.

Since the general business depression oriental goods have been selling at astonishingly low prices in comparison with their former cost. Japanese products, always a temptation to the incursions now that they have been so vigorously "marked down." Black and gold screens of various sizes are shown at a bargain, while all sorts of pretty pottery and china, useful as well as decorative, are begging to be bought. One of the most attractive novelties is a pottery jar the size and shape of a grape fruit, curiously shaded with yellow and green like a half ripe gourd and decorated with gold medallions. There are also shown some new Japanese pin cushions made in the form of an ear of maize, with the green husk still partly enveloping it and a withered looking tas-set of silk at the tip. The Japanese artificial flowers sold for decorative purposes are really wonderful. The blooming cherry branches are especially noticeable for the fidelity of reproduction. Japanese artists have a particular fondness for fruit blossoms, and the cherry is a favorite, being copied by them more frequently than any other flower except the chrysanthemum.

A great many French and Viennese glass and metal novelties are imported by establishments making a specialty of them, and things may often be found there which are never seen at the large fancy goods houses generally patronized. Some beautiful vases and rose bowls of water green glass are exhibited, both plain and decorated with embossed garlands in gold, besides a variety of cups and saucers, trays and similar articles of fine china sprinkled all over with tiny roses, pansies or forget-me-nots. Also there are marvelously lifelike little birds and animals made of metal and enameled in the natural colors. These are most artistically done.

A sketch is given of a fancy bag having a square bottom and triangular sides, inside of which is the gathered bag of silk. The stiff bottom and sides, which are all in one piece and are bent into shape, are covered with silk or plush, and the edge is finished with a cord. Each triangle has a sprig of flowers embroidered upon it, and the lower corners are adorned with small bows of ribbon.

Frozen—Then on Fire.

Like the application of ice to the small of your back, is the sensation produced by the chill that precedes the fever of malaria. Then comes the roasting stage when every vein throbs and is scorched as if with liquid fire. Then you well nigh dissolve in exhausting perspiration that leaves you as limp as a wet dish rag. These alternating torments are not remediable permanently with quinine, which is, moreover, a most damaging cumulative poison. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters drives out the fever and repels its further attacks. It is the leading medicinal safeguard against malaria all over the continents of North and South America, Guatemala, the Isthmus of Panama, Mexico and Australia. It regulates the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys, enriches the blood, and promotes appetite, sleep and digestion. It is not only a medicine, but an effective cordial welcome to the most delicate palate. Rheumatic tendency is counteracted by it.

That oily and rough skin cured and the face and hands beautified by Johnson's Oriental soap; medicated and highly perfumed. Sold at Smith's pharmacy.

CAUTION.—If a dealer offers W. L. Douglas shoes at a reduced price, or says he has them without names stamped on bottom, put him down as a fraud.

W. L. DOUGLAS

$3 SHOE BEST IN THE WORLD.

W. L. DOUGLAS Shoes are stylish, easy fitting, and give better satisfaction at the prices advertised than any other make. Try one pair and be convinced. The stamping of W. L. Douglas' name and price on the bottom, which guarantees their value, saves thousands of dollars annually to those who wear them. Dealers who push the sale of W. L. Douglas Shoes gain customers, which helps to increase the sales on their full line of goods. They can afford to sell at a less profit, and we believe you can save money by buying all your footwear of the dealer advertised below. Catalogue free upon application. Address, W. L. Catarrh

relieved instantly by one application of

Birney's Catarrh Powder

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:

GENTLEMEN.—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The most astute speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the hospital under their care. I will do anything to secure a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering. M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

GENTLEMEN.—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick faintly, it being held in inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.
